CITY OF VERONA POLICE DEPARTMENT Department Overview and Information 2017 Part-Time Records Clerk

The Verona Police Department is a full service, 24-hour police agency which embraces community-oriented policing and neighborhood problem solving.

The City of Verona is located adjacent to the City of Madison, Wisconsin, on U.S. & State Highways 18/151 in Metropolitan Dane County, and has been among the fastest growing communities in the state. The Department of Administration's 2015 reported population was 11,871. This is a 58% increase in population over the past fourteen years, as the 2001 population was 7,502.

The Verona Police Department has an authorized strength of twenty-three full-time equivalent sworn positions and two part-time patrol officers. The department's 2017 authorized staffing levels consist of the Police Chief, two Police Lieutenants, three Police Sergeants, two Detectives, fifteen full-time Patrol Officers, two part-time reserve Patrol Officers, a Business Office Manager, two full-time Records Clerks, one permanent part-time Records Clerk, one limited part-time Records Clerk, and twenty School Crossing Guards.

The most recent (Year 2012) Uniform Crime Report shows Verona's total number of violent offenses as ranking 17 lowest among 27 reporting Dane County police agencies and 19 lowest in property offenses. Verona's 2012 clearance rate of violent crimes reported was 80%, as compared to the Dane County average of 55%. Verona's 2012 clearance rate of crimes reported was 55%, as compared to the Dane County average of 39%.

In October 2008, the Verona Police Department moved into a newly constructed facility; a $7.5 million City Center building which includes City Hall, Municipal Court/Council Chambers and the Police Department. The entire complex is 43,100 square feet of which 26,200 square feet are dedicated to the police department. Included in the new police department is a booking area, training room, emergency operations center, evidence processing room, a drive-through garage and sally port, individual desk and work spaces for officers, a fully equipped fitness room, spacious locker rooms, and state of the art surveillance and audio-visual recording equipment.
